

FREMONT COUNTY SHERIFF'S OFFICE
PRESS RELEASE

06/12/2017

Jeremy Rhoades, age 18, Hamburg, IA

On 06/12/2017, at approximately 2122hrs, deputies were called to the Hamburg City Park for a report of a disturbance. The caller Jeremy Rhoades, age 18 of Hamburg reported several juveniles were trying to fight him and his girlfriend. Rhoades reported the other parties left the area prior to law enforcement arrival.

While deputies were investigating the disturbance, they were called back to the location by another caller, who advised Rhoades damaged their vehicle and assaulted them.

Deputies determined Rhoades struck the caller's vehicle with his own vehicle, and then began striking the side of the vehicle with an unknown object, causing damage. Rhoades then struck the caller, causing injury.

It was determined the victim was not involved in the first disturbance.

Rhoades was arrested for Assault Causing Bodily Injury and Criminal Mischief 4th Degree.

The original disturbance is still under investigation.

Rhoades is being held without bail at the Fremont County Jail.

Sheriff Kevin Aistrop
Fremont County Sheriff's Office

Disclaimer: A criminal charge is merely an accusation and the defendant is presumed innocent until and unless proven guilty.
